

FULL SAIL IMPERIAL STOUT

A hearty brew that is black as night with a strong roasted malt character and a full body that should satisfy any stout cravings. Chocolate and caramel nuances blend with the hops for a smooth Imperial Stout. Half the batch will be racked in bourbon casks, after a year of aging it will be released as Black Gold Bourbon Barrel Stout in February 2011. It's a hearty cellar beer, so make sure you put a few bottles away this year to compare it to next year's bourbon barrel batch.

Brewers are kinda like mad scientists. We're always tinkering away with some new recipe in our lab (insert maniacal laugh here). Back in 1998, we decided to let our own mad scientist brewmaster, John Harris, unleash his brewing chops on the public. The result: our rotating selection of Brewmaster Reserve beers. From barleywines to super-hopped bitters, John springs his latest invention on devoted beer lovers roughly every 10 weeks.

Enjoy!

The Brewmaster Reserve Program is designed to offer special beers, created by our Brewmaster John Harris. This is a unique program. Any questions about this program call 503-222-5343.
